

District Councillor Report: Framsdon Parish Council January 2026

Devolution and local government reform – election delays	The government has delayed the election for a Mayor for Norfolk and Suffolk until May 2027. The government has also offered the option for Councils undergoing reorganisation to further delay local elections i.e. the County Council election currently planned for May 2026. There is a County Council vote on this on January 12th. The Green Party position is that we must have elections at the allotted time not decided by politicians when it's convenient for them.
